TOUCHSTONE HOMES AWARDED AMERICA'S BEST BUILDER FOR 2007
Touchstone Homes Receives National Home Building Honor

ATLANTA – Touchstone Homes is proud to announce that they have been awarded the designation of America's Best Builder for 2007. A panel of ten industry judges selected the America's Best Builder honorees based on their outstanding performance in five different areas; these areas include finance and operations, customer service and quality, community and industry service, design and construction, and marketing. Touchstone Homes President Bryan Cohen stated that, "Touchstone Homes has been awarded America's Best Builder for 2007 because we strive for success, quality, and distinction in all of the areas within the building industry; we want our customers to receive a quality home with the finest customer service, and we want our employees to have the opportunity to learn and grow with our company both personally and professionally."
